2011 Teacher/Principal Evaluation Systems

- The district does not publicly report the data
- District/School website
- District/School publication (newsletter)

Other (please specify)

- In open meeting - report completion of evaluation
- Board minutes reflect the completion of the annual principal evaluation (i.e., motion to accept the principal’s
- I checked the above box as there isn’t an “other” box to check. We do not publicize this in a school newsletter. At School Board meetings I announce the annual evaluation process
- none of the above...we do not have a principal
- Reported at school board meeting
- The evaluations are only addressed with the school board if there is an issue
- With only one principal this would be a violation of confidentiality
- A report is provided annually to board of education members during a regularly scheduled monthly meeting.
