The State Educator Preparation and Licensure Board may, from time to time, become aware of information that indicates that an educational unit or program may not be addressing applicable standards or may otherwise be failing to offer candidates any of the learning opportunities necessary to their preparation as professional educators. Pursuant to 23 Ill. Admin. Code 25.130, the SEPLB reserves the right to inform institutions of areas of concern and to seek further information about the areas of concerns, including invitation of the unit’s representatives to appear before SEPLB to address the concerns.
