

Response to Intervention (RtI): Important Components at the High School Level

What does implementation of RtI practices mean for our high schools? This panel discussion will include suggested best practice related to the essential components of Response to Intervention (RtI) at the high school level. Specific building examples of several of these essential components also will be provided.

Essential Components - Christine Martin, ASPIRE North Regional Coordinator

Rolling Meadows High School - Charles Johns, Ph.D., Principal

Indian Prairie Dist 204 - Sharon Tate, Assistant Superintendent for Student Services

Glenbrook High School - Lindsay Schrand, NSSED Coach
