DUAL CREDIT: SPEECH VERIFICATION FORM

EDUCATOR EFFECTIVENESS DEPARTMENT

PART I of IV – TO BE COMPLETED BY APPLICANT

This form should only be completed by individuals seeking a Dual Credit endorsement in Speech. Individuals seeking another content area should complete the form applicable to the specific content area.

A Dual Credit endorsement, as designated in 110 ILCS 27/Dual Credit Quality Act, is an endorsement valid for Grades 11-12 to be placed on the Professional Educator License at the request of an instructor who meets the appropriate credential standards. An applicant applying for a Dual Credit endorsement who has completed a qualified master's degree or content-specific coursework in graduate disciplines outside a qualified master's degree shall use this form to verify completion of the Dual Credit endorsement requirement.

An applicant must apply for the applicable endorsement in their Educator Licensure Information System \(ELIS\) account and complete the top portion of this form. The applicant should provide all information requested in Part I of this form and forward it to the hiring institution of higher education so Parts II and III can be completed. Please request that the college/university mail or email the completed form to your Regional Office of Education (ROE) or Intermediate Service Center (ISC). Forms submitted to the ROE by the applicant will not be honored. Find your local ROE or ISC here. ROEs/ISCs will complete Part IV of the form after they receive it and upload it to the applicant's ELIS account.
